ZEscrow

Pain-free escrow and sub-accounting, unlike anything you've ever seen.

Move and grow your business faster with modern cash management tools.
If your commercial banking partner can't help you solve real-world business problems, it's time to find a new one. That's why we offer ZEscrow. It's a modern escrow and subaccounting service that accommodates a wide range of businesses and special use cases.

With secure online access, your organization can manage virtually all of your escrow and subaccounting tasks without sending another fax, touching another paper tax form, or calling customer service. The platform works seamlessly with our internal banking software, meaning that you can access all the critical information from your online business banking portal.

Discover how ZEscrow can help your business run more efficiently by contacting our commercial banking team.
